The 9th Trinational Conference for the Defense of Public Education will be held in Montreal in May. This biennial event is a forum for union activists and representatives from Mexico, the United States and Canada to share their experiences defending public education. This is an opportunity to review the current state of public education in each country and to promote union strategies to advance the cause of public education. This is a not-to-be-missed event for those who care about the future of public education in North America !

The event is co-organized this year by the CSQ and by FNEEQ-CSN with the support of CISO. This year's theme is Towards public and democratic education in North America. Four speakers from Mexico, the United States, Canada and Quebec will open the conference with a public discussion at 7 pm on Friday, May 7, 2010, in the Marie-Gérin-Lajoie auditorium at UQAM's downtown campus in Montréal.
